CREATIVE SCOTLAND – RESOURCES FOR COVID-19

Creative Scotland is the public body that supports the arts, screen and creative industries across all parts of Scotland on behalf of everyone who lives, works or visits here.

They enable people and organisations to work in and experience the arts, screen and creative industries in Scotland by helping others to develop great ideas and bring them to life.

They distribute funding from the Scottish Government and The National Lottery.

Creative Scotland have put together a resource directory of business support.

Resource Directory for Covid-19

COVID-19 FUNDING AND RESOURCE DIRECTORY

They have pulled together an A-Z of funding and resources available to those in the creative community, who have been affected by Coronavirus (Covid-19).

This information was accurate at the time of writing but please note that some details may be subject to change due to the current situation.

See: <https://www.creativescotland.com/resources/professional-resources/covid-19-directory>

There is also a page of guidance and toolkits.

Guidance and Toolkits

An Introduction to Scotland's Languages

Find out about the indigenous languages of Scotland, Gaelic and Scots. Both languages are part of our history and culture with rich oral traditions still very much alive in song, drama and storytelling.
